EARLY HISTORY

South Dakota State University, the state's land grant institution, was authorized in 1881 by the Territorial Legislative Assembly. Territorial council member John O'Brien Scobey, failing to obtain the penitentiary for Brookings, managed to secure Dakota Agricultural College for his city.

Although allocations fell short of the actual cost, the school was able open in the fall of 1884 because the president, George Lilley, was willing to advance $500 (one third of his salary) to finish three rooms in the new Central building. "Old Central" was soon joined by South (1885) and North (1887), forming the nucleus of campus activities for a decade and a half.

During the first year of operation, only preparatory classes were held. College classes started in 1885 with 5 teachers and 17 freshman and 61 preparatory students. Growth was slow and erratic for many years, but by the turn of the century there were 242 students. By 1990 SDSU had an enrollment of over 9,000 students with nearly 8,100 at the Brookings campus. It has granted over 46,500 degrees since the college was chartered in 1881.

The structure of the college became more complex as enrollments increased. The first nine chairs of instruction established in 1884 included agriculture, science, mathematics, English, modern languages, military tactics, veterinary science, practical business, political and domestic economy, and music.

By 1907, the year the name of the institution was changed to South Dakota State College of Agriculture and Mechanic Arts, there were 22 departments on campus. Reorganization into the five divisions which formed the basis for the designation of colleges was completed under President Charles W. Pugsley in 1923.

In 1964, when "State College" was renamed South Dakota State University, there were six colleges - Arts and Science, Agricultural and Biological Sciences, Home Economics, Engineering, Nursing, and Pharmacy and a Graduate Division. A seventh, General Registration, was added later. In 1975 the Division of Education was created, which became the College of Education and Counseling in 1991.

Today, degrees are offered through these eight colleges:

- Agricultural and Biological Sciences
- Arts and Science
- Education and Counseling,
- Engineering
- Family and Consumer Sciences
- General Registration

- Nursing
- Pharmacy
- Graduate School

South Dakota State University is accredited by the North Central Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools.

271 ACRE CAMPUS

South Dakota State University has grown from a campus of eighty acres when the institution was founded by the Territorial Legislature in 1881, to a 271 acre campus with facilities worth over $220 million. The University owns or leases another 15,000 acres of land for research throughout the state.

Peggy Gordon Elliott became SDSU's eighteenth president on January 1, 1998 following the retirement of Robert T. Wagner.

SOUTH DAKOTA'S LARGEST

With 8,635 students registered for the Fall of 1998, enrollment at SDSU continues to be the largest of all the South Dakota institutions of higher education.

More than 200 majors, minors and options are available with more than 2,500 different course offerings. Master's degrees are offered in more than 30 areas, and doctorates are available in eight fields. The University also offers degree programs through the Sioux Falls Center for Public Higher Education.

Evening, RDTN, Internet, and off-campus courses are available through the Office of Academic Affairs and Outreach.

Seventy-five percent of entering freshman are in the upper-half of their high school graduating class and 40 percent are in the top 25 percent. Seventy percent are residents of South Dakota, 20 percent come from 46 states and 41 international countries.

Supplementing classroom instruction are the Harding Distinguished Lecture Series, the F.O. Butler Lectures, and the Amdahl, Schultz-Werth and Griffiths endowments. Students may join more than one hundred clubs and organizations that are active on campus.

The University reaches all corners of the state through the Cooperative Extension Service and the Agricultural Experiment Station, offering service to seek to improve the quality of rural life. Also at SDSU are the Center for Innovation, Technology and Entrepreneurship, Engineering Experiment Station, Office of Remote Sensing, South Dakota Transportation Technology Transfer Service, University/Industry Technology Service, Water Resources Institute, Engineering and Environmental Research Center, Animal Disease Research and Diagnostic Laboratory, and Northern Grain Insect Research Laboratory.

These units help strengthen the University's growing commitment to research in the areas of energy and water resources, and support of state and local economic development efforts through research and information transfer. The newest buildings on campus are Berg Hall and Bailey Hall, both featuring apartment-style student housing. Each building has 40 units with four single person bedrooms and a common kitchen space, living room, and bathroom. The $7.2 million project was dedicated on October 22, 1994.

The Northern Great Plains Biostress Laboratory, dedicated in 1993, houses scientists who focus on research aimed at developing new technologies to protect crops and livestock. Research conducted in this facility benefits the entire region.

MUSEUMS

The South Dakota Art Museum was first envisioned by the South Dakota Federation of Women's clubs in 1949, and dedicated in 1970. The Museum's collections correspond to the rich art history of the state, including early masterpieces of Sioux Indian Tribal art, the famed Harvey Dunn paintings of pioneer life and the exclusive Vera Way Marghab linens.

The State Agricultural Heritage Museum transformed the former Stock Judging Pavilion into a home for exhibits that record and preserve the agrarian heritage of South Dakota. Visitors come from all 50 states and 45 foreign countries.

The 70-acre McCrory Gardens and South Dakota Arboretum provide a beautiful setting for area residents and tourists to enjoy a stroll through the radiant colors and fragrances of one of the top 10 small ornamental gardens in the nation. It is also recognized as an All-American Display Garden, one of only 13 in the nation. In 1993 McCrory Gardens was designated an All-American Judging Garden to conduct research on annual flowers.

Since 1985, private contributions have made many new gardens possible including the Rose, Rock, Centennial Prairie, Iris, True Lily, Mum, Native Prairie Collection, Oak Tree Memorial Garden, All-Red Specialty Garden, Peony Garden, Shrub Rose Collection, and Children's Maze. In August 1994, dedication ceremonies were held for the Mickelson Grove Memorial.

The S.D. Arboretum's purpose is to test woody plants needed to protect agricultural fields and livestock from the region's harsh environment, to provide hardy trees to shade our towns and cities, and to test ornamental shrubs for both durability and beauty.

Both the arboretum and gardens are managed by the SDSU Horticulture, Forestry, Landscape and Parks Department. More gardens and tree and shrub collections are being developed.

LARGEST LIBRARY

The Hilton M. Briggs Library, the state's largest, was opened in 1977 and joined South Dakota's statewide automated library network in 1988. Through the library users have access to holdings from all 10 of the state's libraries, including official documents and more than one million other holdings at Briggs.

CHARTER MEMBER OF NCC

Athletically, SDSU is a charter member of the North Central Intercollegiate Athletic Conference, established in 1921.

SDSU boasts one of the top all-around athletic programs in NCAA Division II, annually among the top teams in competition for the Sears Directors Trophy, awarded to the top all-around program in the nation.

In 1988, 1992 and again in 1996, SDSU participated in the NCAA Division II playoffs for both men and women.

SDSU won the NCAA College Division basketball championship in 1963 and was runnerup in 1985.

The Jacks were national champions in men's cross country in 1996, and finished runnerup in the nation in wrestling last year.

Booher is a member of the NCC Hall of Fame and the South Dakota Athletic Trainers Association Hall of Fame. Booher and his wife, Kathy, have three children.

PAIR OF ALL-NCC PLAYERS LEAD '99 JACKS

For most teams, losing an All-America center and starting forward from a team which led the nation in rebounding might diminish expectations for the following year.

Not at South Dakota State.

"Obviously, we have some new players, but that happens all the time in college basketball," SDSU coach Scott Nagy said.

"We still think we have the personnel to execute the things we feel are important, defense and rebounding.

"Leading the nation in rebounding is an ultimate achievement. That won't happen every year. But our goal is to out-rebound our opponent every time we play, then see what it adds up to at the end," Nagy said. For the record, the '98 Jacks were plus 10.6 per game on the boards last year.

While center Kurt Meister and forward Matt Wallace along with backup Mike Schott are gone, SDSU still returns a pair of all-conference performers, point guard Brian Norberg and forward Casey Estling.

Norberg is closing in on the SDSU career assist record, set by Kyle Adams. He needs 46. Norberg led the NCC in assists last year.

The new guys up front will include a mixture of old and new.

Michael Torrence started every game at the off-guard last year as a sophomore.

Bill Fischer was Meister's backup for two years, playing in every game. Now it's his turn to step in. Junior college transfer Matt Elfers also figures to play.

The four spot could be a battle between Cody Volmer, who was coming on strong before an injury ended his season last year, and JC transfer James Banks.

Then there are Casey Walker and Turk Watson, guys who made invaluable contributions last year off the bench. Matter of fact, Walker was second on the team in scoring despite not starting a game.

In addition, there are a couple of redshirts who may contribute, 6-8 Andy Cone and guard Jeff Sehr.

The one freshman recruit, Austin Hansen, will redshirt, if everything goes according to plan.

"This team will be more athletic than our past teams," Nagy said. "We shouldn't have a shortage of offensive weapons so our success will depend on how quickly we adjust to rebounding and defense."

'98 Season Full Of Accomplishments At SDSU

In South Dakota State's tradition-rich men's basketball history, the year of 1998 will be remembered as ... record setting:

- Most consecutive victories, 21;
- Most consecutive victories to open a season, 21-0;
- First-time ranked No. 1 in the nation (Feb. 9);
- Most consecutive victories at Frost Arena, 22.

The Jacks tied the SDSU record for:

- victories in the regular season, 25 - matching the 25 by the 1922 team;
- overall victories, 26 - tying the 1985 team which finished 26-7.

The Jacks won their third straight North Central Conference championship. It's the third time SDSU has accomplished that feat - matching the 1959-60-61 and 1968-69-70 teams. No SDSU team has won four straight (UND is the last team to do it, 1974-75-76-77).

SDSU has 19 NCC titles in men's basketball, breaking a tie with UND to put SDSU at the top of the championships list.

SDSU not only made its third straight appearance in the NCAA playoffs, but appeared in the regional championship game for the third straight year.

SDSU was the last Division I or Division II team in the country to suffer a loss. Ironically, that loss came on Friday the 13th (of February).

The Jacks closed the season ranked fourth in the final Division II poll, making the 28th straight regular-season poll in which SDSU has been in the Division II ratings.

Kurt Meister ended his career tenth on the Jackrabbit scoring list, with 1,281 points; ninth in games played, with 115; and seventh in career rebounds, with 734. Meister and Norberg also earned all-tournament honors at the Grand Canyon Thanksgiving Classic in November.

Meister was third team All-America honors (NABC) after earning all-NCC honors for the second straight year. Junior guard Brian Norberg and sophomore forward Casey Estling were also named to the all-NCC team with senior forward Matt Wallace on the honorable mention list.

Meister was also named to the Daktronics, Inc., all-North Central Region first-team, picked by the sports information directors, and was also on the all-North Central Region tourney team along with Casey Walker. Despite never starting a game, Walker also earned NCC Player of the Week once during the season (after home victories over UND and NDSU in January).

HEAD COACH SCOTT NAGY

After Scott Nagy's first year as head coach at South Dakota State University, it was easy to ask, "What can he do for an encore?"

After all, he inherited a 17-10 team which was picked sixth in the North Central Conference pre-season poll and marched to an outright league championship.

In his first season as head coach at any level, Nagy was not only named NCC Coach of the Year, but picked as Division II Coach of the year by Basketball Times.

Now, heading into his fourth season, expectations have changed.

SDSU is 75-13 during Nagy's first three years and no longer an underdog.

The Jacks have won three straight NCC titles,

Nagy has been NCC Coach of the Year three times. The Jacks have made three straight appearances in the NCAA Division II North Central Regional championship game, advancing to the Elite Eight in 1997.

And Nagy's style of play brought out the fans – SDSU has led the nation (Division II) in attendance each season.

Adam Thaler, in the Sioux Falls Argus Leader, wrote: "If only coaching were as easy as Scott Nagy makes it seem."

The team wasn't completely foreign to the league's youngest coach when he took over. He had recruited a number of the players during his stay as an assistant coach before he moved to Southern Illinois-Edwardsville.

Still, when he said "We can win the conference," some wondered. They are now believers.

"I like this level," Nagy said. "I played at this level. It's a level I know well. It's a chance for the athlete to play good basketball."

Nagy says, "There are two great motivators, love and fear. The most important thing I can do is let the players know I care about them."

Nagy is from Champaign, Ill., where his father, Dick, was a long-time assistant coach at the University of Illinois. Nagy attended Delta State and was a four-year starter at point guard. He played on a team that defeated NCC champion St. Cloud State in the NCAA Division II quarterfinals in 1987.

Nagy was named Gulf South Conference "Athlete of the Year" in 1988 and is still the Delta State all-time leader in assists. For his efforts, Nagy has been named to the Delta State Hall of Fame.

Academically, Nagy was a GTE-CoSida Academic All-American and was named to the Gulf South academic all-conference team three straight years.

Although just 29 when he became head coach at SDSU, Nagy had not only grown up in a basketball setting, but had seven seasons experience as an assistant coach. He was a graduate assistant for two seasons under coach Lou Henson, helping guide the Fighting Illini to two trips to the NCAA tournament. He was with the Illinois team which qualified for the Final Four in 1989. Nagy was an assistant at SDSU under head coach Jim Thorson from 1990-93. During that tenure, the Jacks claimed the NCC title in 1992 and the NCC post-season tournament crown in 1991, playing in the NCAA tournament each year.

For two seasons before becoming head coach at SDSU, Nagy was assistant coach at SIU-E.

Nagy and his wife, Jamie, have two sons, Nick (4) and Tyler (3).

FROST ARENA

South Dakota State University plays its home games in Frost Arena, named after former SDSU coach and athletic director R.B. "Jack" Frost.

The facility, which is part of the Stanley J. Marshall HPER Center, now seats 9,000 fans for basketball. The SDSU-Augustana game on February 11, 1989, attracted an arena record 9,456 fans, a record which may never be broken since the new chair-back courtside seating, added two years ago, eliminated nearly 500 seats from the arena total.

The improved seating is just the latest in a series of changes which have included adding scoreboards at each end of the floor to compliment the main scoreboard hanging over mid-court, incorporating a colorful scorer's bench at courtside, repainting the floor, and adding an $80,000 sound system to the arena.

Bids totaling $3,374,115 were let for the facility following legislative approval of the project with the bill signed by Governor Frank Farrar February 14, 1970. Ground was broken Sept. 22, 1970. The cornerstone was placed by Governor Richard Kneip Oct. 2, 1971. Final cost of the building was $3,685,000, with the difference made up by gifts and items donated later.

The first game played at the Arena was on February 2, 1973. Last winter, the one-millionth fan passed through the Frost Arena turnstiles.

Reuben B. (Jack) Frost was born in Sheyenne, North Dakota, April 26, 1907, and graduated from Spring Grove, Minn., High School in 1923. He attended Luther College (Iowa) from 1924 to 1928, and received his PhD in Physical Education from the University of Oregon in 1958.

He was named Athletic Director, and professor and head of the Department of Physical Education in June 1947, and served until assuming a distinguished professorship at Springfield (Mass.) College in 1960. At Springfield, he occupied the only endowed chair for physical education in the nation.

His coaching career began in 1928 at Glenwood, Minn., High School and later at Fergus Falls, Minn. In 1935, he became athletic director and coach at Bemidji State College.

In 1951, Dr. Frost established the Health, Physical Education and Recreation Graduate program here.

He was an international leader in recreation, health and physical education. Among other international assignments, he was this nation's representative at the Fifth Session of the International Olympic Academy at Greece in 1965.

An author, teacher, coach and administrator, Dr. Frost's influence on this university remains today. He was mentor to Dr. Stanley Marshall, in whose honor the HPER Center is named.

ABOUT THE NORTH CENTRAL CONFERENCE

South Dakota State University is a charter member of the North Central Intercollegiate Conference, better known as the North Central Conference or NCC.

The league was formed in the fall of 1921 when representatives of colleges and universities from South Dakota, North Dakota, Minnesota, Iowa and Nebraska met in Chicago to consider the formation of a conference. The first official competition had teams from South Dakota State, University of South Dakota, North Dakota State, University of North Dakota, Nebraska Wesleyan, Morningside, Creighton University, College of St. Thomas and Des Moines University.

Early competition involved just three sports: football, basketball and track. The NCC now determines championships in ten sports for men and ten for women. Men's championships are determined in football, cross country and golf in the fall; basketball, wrestling, swimming and indoor track in the winter; plus baseball, tennis and outdoor track in the spring.

The league has been a model for other NCAA Division II conferences around the nation, not only competitively but also from an administrative standpoint.

Athletically, the conference produced four of the top eight teams in the 1996 NCAA Division II Sears Trophy race as the top all-around programs in the country. Last year, the NCC claimed national championships in women's basketball (UND), men's cross country (USD), football (UNC) and wrestling (NDSU).

The league has had numerous changes in membership over the years, although five charter members are still counted among the teams in the ten-member league.

During the spring and summer of 1981, the most recent changes were made. Mankato State, a league member from 1968 through 1977, was re-admitted at the spring meeting. Then at the summer meeting, St. Cloud State's application for admission was approved. The University of Northern Colorado at Greeley was added to the league in 1979. UNC competes in the NCC in all sports except baseball, where the Bears have maintained a Division I program.

Charter members still participating are SDSU, USD, NDSU, UND, and Morningside. Also in the league is Augustana College of South Dakota, admitted in 1941; and the University of Nebraska-Omaha, added in 1976. UNO was actually in the league from 1935-43 when it was Omaha University --before the university became part of the Nebraska state system.

Des Moines University was the first of the charter members to leave the league, withdrawing in 1926. That university later ceased operations.

Nebraska Wesleyan withdrew following the 1927 football season. St. Thomas and Creighton severed ties in 1928.

The University of Northern Iowa joined the Michael J. Marcil was named the sixth NCC commissioner in October, 1997, succeeding Noel Olson, who retired. Olson is now the NCC's Supervisor of Officials. Melanie Heitman-Nelson joined the conference office as assistant commissioner in the spring of 1992, and Jon J. Martin was named NCC Director of Media Relations in July 1998.

Olson served as commissioner from 1984 until October, 1997. Previous comcommissioners were Jack McClelland (1968-70), Dr. Richard Koppenhaver (1970-77), R.D. "Dewey" Halford (1977-84) and Noel Olson (1984-97).

JACKRABBIT HISTORY

The last time a North Central Conference basketball team won the NCAA Division II championship game, Sid Bostic ended it with a 40-foot shot at the buzzer.

That gave South Dakota State a 44-42 victory over Eldon Miller's Wittenburg Tigers in the 1963 title showdown.

Twenty-one consecutive tournaments passed without one NCC team in the title game ... until March of 1985. Then, guess who returned – the Yellow and Blue.

In a storybook year for the Jackrabbits, there was no storybook ending to that one. Jacksonville State rallied from a 71-64 deficit with 2:14 to play to defeat SDSU 74-73 in an exciting championship game at the Division II Final Four in Springfield, Mass.

Losing in the finals of the national tournament didn't alter what the 1985 Jackrabbit team accomplished. Rather, it just added another chapter to the tradition-rich history of SDSU basketball.

The word "winning" and "basketball" have become synonymous at SDSU.

In 1992, the Jackrabbits went back to Springfield for the Elite Eight after winning their seventh regional championship.

In 1993, the Jacks added another milestone, becoming just the eighth team in NCAA Division II history to win 1,000 or more games. SDSU achieved its 1,000th victory by defeating Nebraska-Omaha 69-67 at Omaha.

In 1997, the Jacks claimed their eighth regional championship and advanced to the Elite Eight, this time in Louisville, KY.

SDSU leads in North Central Conference championships, 19.

SDSU has more NCAA post-season tournament appearances, 19, than any other NCC team.

Only three teams in the country have been in the NCAA playoffs more often than SDSU.

SDSU won more NCC holiday tournament titles than any other team, five. SDSU's holiday tournament championships were in 1968, 1969, 1973, 1977 and 1979. In addition, SDSU won the NCC tournament played in Sioux City in 1950.

SDSU has also had more individuals win the league's Most Valuable Player Award, twelve, than any other league member. Jason Sempsrott captured the honor in 1997.

In 1979-80, SDSU became the first, and only, team to win the NCC "Triple Crown", claiming championships in the holiday tournament, regular season and post-season tournament. SDSU hosted, and won, the NCAA Division II North Central regional that year, advancing to the quarter-finals of the national tournament.

In 1985, SDSU not only hosted and won the North Central regional, but became the first team in South Dakota to host an NCAA quarterfinal-round game. On March 16, 1985, a Frost Arena and NCAA Division II playoff record 9,339 fans watched the Jacks defeat California State-Hayward 62-58, giving SDSU a berth in the NCAA Final Four.

SDSU has won regional crowns in 1959, 1961, 1963, 1970, 1980, 1985, 1992 and 1997, and has also participated in national playoffs (which started in 1957) in 1960, 1968, 1969, 1972, 1973, 1978, 1984, 1988, 1991, 1996 and 1998.

SDSU is one of two North Central Conference teams which can boast of winning a national championship. The 1963 team, coached by CHAMPS!!! -- Forward Nick Brod has his hands full with the championship trophy after SDSU defeated Wittenburg to claim the 1963 College Division championship.

Jim Iverson and featuring All-America center Tom Black, went 22-5 for the season, and won the title on the dramatic shot by Bostic.

SDSU has had three players earn the Outstanding Player award at the national finals – Don Jacobsen, when State finished third in 1961; Wayne Rasmussen, in 1963; and Mark Tetzlaff, in 1985. And, typical of South Dakota State's tradition of winning with small town home-grown talent, Jacobsen was from Lake Norden, Rasmussen from Howard and Tetzlaff from Hayti.

Eight Jackrabbit players of recent history have had tryouts with pro teams in this country.

In 1980, Steve Lingenfelter was the 44th player picked in the NBA draft, selected by the Washington Bullets. In 1980-81, he passed up the opportunity to play in the NBA, choosing instead to spend a season in Italy. But he made the Bullet roster at the start of the 1983 season. In 1984, he played in the Continental League, and had a ten-day contract with the San Antonio Spurs. The past four years, he has played pro ball in Europe.

Black played with the Phillips 66 Oilers of the old AAU league, then spent the 1970-71 season with Seattle and Cincinnati of the NBA.
